Why the FIS Post Trade Processing Platform Matters

Operational risk management, regulatory changes, technological advancements, automation and shortening settlement cycles are leading sell-side financial institutions to elevate their post-trade processes.

The FIS Post Trade Processing Platform is a modern cloud-based SaaS solution for post trade processing across securities, derivatives, and digital assets. The real-time solution is secure and scalable, and available in modules allowing customers to select elements that best fit their specific requirements. It supports a wide range of asset classes, providing a comprehensive offering on a single, integrated platform that helps future-proof businesses, reduce costs, minimize risk, and drive operational efficiency.

Nasser Khodri, President, Capital Markets at FIS said: "It's more crucial now, than ever, for sell-side financial institutions to optimize their post-trade process. The FIS Post Trade Processing Platform helps brokers and dealers remain compliant with regulations and deal with volume increases, connect their infrastructure to gain efficiencies and control and manage costs by optimizing their inventories and minimizing balance sheet impacts. Achieving recognition through these awards is a testament to our commitment to help our clients navigate the changing post-trade landscape and unlock financial technology to the world."
