JACKSONVILLE, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Sep. 25, 2024-- FIS® (NYSE: FIS), a global leader in financial services technology, has been named one of TIME’s World’s Best Companies of 2024, a prestigious recognition of the world’s top-performing and most responsible companies.

In partnership with Statista, a leading provider of market and consumer data, TIME compiled the list by evaluating companies based on three dimensions: employee satisfaction, revenue growth and sustainability. The ranking is based on data from surveys, databases and research, covering more than 15 different criteria.

FIS received an overall score of 87.59 out of 100, demonstrating its commitment to growth while still having a positive impact on its colleagues, clients and communities around the world. As of Sept. 18, 2024, FIS had outpaced the S&P 500 in total shareholder returns by 24% year-to-date.

"We are honored to be recognized by TIME as one of the World’s Best Companies," said Stephanie Ferris, President and CEO at FIS. "Such an accolade is a testament to not just our vision of unlocking financial technology to the world across the money lifecycle, but creating a culture where our colleagues learn, grow and make an impact. Being on this year’s list is the direct result of our employees’ dedication to transforming FIS into a simpler, more innovative and more client-centric company."

In July 2024, FIS published its fifth annual Global Sustainability Report, detailing the company’s strides in empowering individuals and businesses in the digital economy, protecting its clients and the financial system, advancing its workforce and inclusion and diversity initiatives, managing its environmental impact and risk, operating with integrity, and managing a sustainable supply chain—all while adhering to strict governance practices.

The report complemented strong financial results in both the first quarter and second quarter of the year, the launch of new small business lending and climate risk solutions, and President & CEO Stephanie Ferris being named as American Banker’s 2024 Most Influential Woman in Fintech. Notably, 2024 also saw the launch of Atelio™ by FIS—a fintech platform that provides the building blocks for financial institutions, businesses and software developers to embed financial services into their offerings.
