JACKSONVILLE, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jul. 16, 2025-- FIS® (NYSE: FIS), a global leader in financial technology, today announced that it has once again been recognized on CNBC's World's Top Fintech Companies list, in the Enterprise Fintech category. 2025 marks the third year in a row that FIS has earned a spot on the annual global ranking, developed in partnership with market research firm Statista.

CNBC and Statista evaluated more than 2,000 fintech companies worldwide across eight core segments: Payments, Alternate Finance, Financial Planning, Digital Assets, Neobanking, Wealth Technology, Business Process Solutions, and Banking Solutions. The selection process combined publicly available data analysis with direct company submissions to identify the industry's most impactful organizations.

"We're passionate about creating solutions that not only address today's financial challenges but also help our clients stay ahead of what's next," said Jim Johnson, co-president Banking Solutions, at FIS. "Our goal is to help unlock opportunities at every stage of the money lifecycle. We're honored to be recognized by CNBC for the third year in a row. It reinforces our commitment to delivering trusted technology that drives meaningful progress for the institutions we support."

This recognition follows a series of recent advancements from FIS aimed at modernizing the financial services experience and how consumers experience the stages of the money lifecycle, including:

- Cloud-Native Treasury Solutions: The launch of FIS® Treasury and Risk Manager – Quantum Cloud Edition provides CFOs and corporate treasurers with rapid visibility into cash positions and risk exposures to help facilitate faster, data-driven decisions.
- Issuer Enablement Solutions: FIS expanded its partnership with Visa to bring advanced payment capabilities to regional and community banks. The offering helps empower smaller issuers to grow revenue, reduce fraud losses and compete more effectively with larger financial institutions.
- Financial Harmony Research: FIS' comprehensive study with Oxford Economics surveying over 1,000 C-suite leaders across six industries quantified how cyberthreats, fraud, and regulatory complexities cost businesses an average of $98.5 million annually, while revealing that companies implementing embedded finance solutions achieve on average 8.5% in year-over-year sales growth.

The company was also recently recognized as a Leader in the 2025 Gartner® Magic Quadrant™ for Retail Core Banking Systems in North America, and its Digital Card Issuance solution was named an Overall Leader by Javelin Strategy & Research for its feature-rich design and consumer-centric experience.
