Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 30, 2015, Fidelity National Information Services, Inc. (“FIS”) acquired SunGard for cash and shares of FIS common stock (the “SunGard acquisition”). In connection with the SunGard acquisition, FIS entered into support and standstill agreements (collectively, the “Support and Standstill Agreements”) with certain stockholders of SunGard (each a “Sponsor Stockholder”) with respect to all shares of common stock of FIS that each such Sponsor Stockholder received as consideration in the SunGard acquisition. Fifty percent (50%) of the shares of FIS common stock received by the Sponsor Stockholders in the SunGard acquisition, or approximately 17.6 million shares, are subject to transfer restrictions under the Support and Standstill Agreements until after 180 days following the effective date of the acquisition (the “Final Lock-Up Period”). On May 31, 2016, the Final Lock-up Period would end and such approximately 17.6 million shares of FIS common stock would then become transferable.

Sponsor Stockholders have requested that FIS waive the transfer restrictions currently in effect in order to allow them the ability to transfer these shares prior to the end of the Final Lock-Up Period. On May 12, 2016, FIS agreed to irrevocably waive the transfer restrictions of the Final Lock-Up Period effective from and after 4 p.m. on May 12, 2016 in respect of any transfer of these shares of FIS common stock by the Sponsor Stockholders.

A copy of the waiver is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Report.
