Explanation of Responses:

- In a Form 4 filed on March 2, 2023, the reporting person reported receipt of a grant of premium stock options on February 28, 2023 that would vest and become exercisable over three years with a different premium exercise price for each vested tranche. These options should have been reported as three separate grants (rather than one consolidated grant in the same aggregate amount), with 15%, 25%, and 30% premium exercise prices to the closing price on February 28, 2023 of $63.37, and each vesting and becoming exercisable in three equal installments over three years. There were no additional grants of premium stock options made to reporting person in fiscal 2023.
- The options vest and become exercisable in three equal annual installments on the first, second and third anniversaries of the grant date.
